

Celebrating Black History Month at University Libraries

February 2009

Instruction Sessions

February 10, 2009

Bracken Library, Room 210
12:30pm-1:30pm

Using Primary Sources and Maps to Study African American Heritage

Introduction to resources from Archives and Special Collections, Geospatial Resources and Map Collection, and the Digital Media Repository.

February 11, 2009

Bracken Library, Room 215
12pm-1pm

Researching Black History at Bracken Library

Introduction to resources from the General Collection, Articles and Databases, and the Music Collection.

February 17, 2009

Bracken Library, Room 215
3:30pm-4:30pm

Researching Black History at Bracken Library

Introduction to resources from the General Collection, Articles and Databases, and the Music Collection.

February 18, 2009

Bracken Library, Room 210
12:30pm-1:30pm

Using Primary Sources and Maps to Study African American Heritage

Introduction to resources from Archives and Special Collections, Geospatial Resources and Map Collection, and the Digital Media Repository.

Documentary Screenings

February 2, 2009

Bracken Library, Room 225
Begins at 7pm

Eyes on the Prize: America's Civil Rights Years, Volume 1

Narrated by NAACP chairman, Julian Bond, Eyes on the Prize documents milestones and achievements of the Civil Rights Movement.

February 9, 2009

Bracken Library, Room 225
Begins at 7pm

African American Lives

Henry Louis Gates Jr. guides eleven African Americans on a search for their ancestry, exploring black history from slavery to the early 1900s.

February 16, 2009

Bracken Library, Room 225
Begins at 7pm

The Murder of Emmett Till

Andre Braugher narrates this examination of the 1955 murder of Emmett Till, and its implications for the Civil Rights Movement.

February 23, 2009

Bracken Library, Room 225
Begins at 7pm

Prince Among Slaves

As told by Mos Def, this film describes the true story of an African prince who endured slavery without losing his hope of freedom.

Exhibits

February 2009

Bracken Library
Outside Room 210

Making a Difference:

Voices of Freedom Throughout African American History

The exhibit features images and words of influential African Americans.

February 2009

Bracken Library
Room 224

The Geography of Black History

Images and maps of significant events related to African American history are included in this exhibit.

Available at www.bsu.edu/libraries/archives/

Digital Resources Celebrating Black History Month:

A Look Inside the Digital Media Repository

This digital exhibit showcases local citizens, events, publications, and milestones.

University Libraries

A destination for research, learning, and friends

